

Thank you for visiting the new AIDA website!

The upgrading of the AIDA website has been long overdue and we hope you like the new content and 'look and feel' of the site.

However, we appreciate that there is still much more to do, and this survey aims to understand where you think we need to focus our efforts.

There are only 11 questions which should only take 10 minutes of your time.

Please be as honest with your feedback as this site is written by freedivers for freedivers so you are the best judge of how good it is !

Thanks for your time.
