

The AIDA Monofin Freediver Course is a specialised course for the development of correct monofin technique. The students will be introduced to specific stretching and exercises that will help them improve their monofin kicks while obtaining a better fluidity and streamlined position underwater.