- Participation fee is 95€ for A.I.D.A members.
- If you are not member of A.I.D.A. International you must pay an additional 5€ (total 100€) and you will become member of A.I.D.A Austria until end of 2023. Note, this is only available for Austrian citizens.
- Only coated weights are allowed in the swimming pool. This will be checked during registration.
- Participation fee needs to be transferred until October 1st, 2023, otherwise the registration is not valid.
- If a participant does not appear for the competition their paid entry fee forfeits. Refund is not possible.
- The official language of this competition is English.
- You agree to be filmed and photographed during the whole competition, and if photos and videos are published, you will not be asking for financial compensation. Competition organizer is obligated not to publish captured images and videos out of context of freediving. Competition organizer is obligated to use the images and videos for the purpose of popularization and education of freediving. Competition organizer is obligated to keep footage and films away from unauthorized use.
- Photo and video recordings are property of the organizer and will not be handed over. As a result of your registration, you grant the organizer the permission to use all photographs and video recordings for advertising and educational purposes or to publish them.
- A.I.D.A will publish some personal data like name, gender, nationality or age (for instance for the ranking).
- Any other data submitted by the athlete will be stored by A.I.D.A. Austria until up to five years after the competition.
- If you have any question regarding the use of your data please contact us \(competition@aida-austria.at\).

- With your participation you confirm that you are not suffering from any chronic diseases of the cardiovascular system, lungs and breathing apparatus, ears, or suffering of any other diseases that would impede your ability to participate in the freediving sport and therefore in this competition. You furthermore state, that you are not currently on any medication that might influence your performance or pose a health risk under strenuous exercise. Should your physical condition be subject to any negative change in the above sense, you will report to the organization committee of the competition and cease any further diving attempts. You have been fully informed of all aspects of freediving through participation in applicable and accepted courses and seminars. You are fully aware of all risks involved in freediving, including hypoxia, blackout and other possible traumas. You will, without fail, follow all instructions of the organization committee, jury, and the safety personal. This applies to any safety relevant instructions given during the actual diving attempts. You are aware that any failure to follow these instructions may lead to immediate exclusion from the competition.
- You will not hold Organizers, any members of its board or the organization itself, judges, the safety personal or any other persons associated with it, to be responsible or to be blamed in the case of any accidents or damage to your health stemming from the participation in the competition. You will furthermore not pursue legal steps against them in any of these cases. Your participation in this Competition and therefore in any diving attempts is purely at your own risk. The above limitation of responsibility does not extend to criminal negligence or malicious intent. You are aware that your participation in specific diving attempts is purely voluntary.
- The number of participants is limited to 48 starting places (the ranking takes place after complete registration and transferred entry fee).
- If there are more than 48 registrations surplus participants will be placed on a waiting list and may move up if an athlete does not participate (of course, participants on the waiting list will receive a refund of the registration fee if there is no place left for them).
- You have read and understood the regulations of AIDA.
- With the submission of the registration form, you confirm that you have read, understood and accepted the conditions of participation.
